RIAL TRIP OF THE NEW STEAME

"THAI PING."

The trial trip of the That Ping took place yesterday, and was a thorough success. The Thai Ping, is a bost which has been built by the Hongkong and Whampes Dock Company to the order of a Company of Chinese merchants at Penang. She is intended for the traffic between that port and Laroot in Perak, and is, perhaps, the largest order which has ever been executed by the enterprising Dock Company. general description of the boat was given at the time of her launch from the Kewloon Dook a few months ago, and it will be sufficient to say that she greatly resembles the White Cloud though somewhat smaller. Since her knuch her engines have been fitted in to her, and she has now been made completely ready to hand over to her owners. Every part of her has reflects much credit upon her constructors int. Inglis was deputed by the Company who ordered the steamer to supervise its construction, and The Messageries Maritimes atcamer Amazone, that gentleman is fully satisfied with the way in with the next French mail, arrived at Singapore, which the work has been sarried out. The Thai Ping is a paddle steamer, built object for the passenger trade, and she is minently suited for the purpose for which she was ordered. The saloon is a neatly fitted up apartment on her main deck aft. Above this deck is the awning deck, a fine promonade, and the real deck of the vessel as far as passengers are concerned. trial trip was fixed for yesterday, the route for the trip to Mecao and back, and a large number of gentlemen assembled on Feddar's Wharf to make the excursion. At about nine o'clock the boat atesmed up to the Wharf. and all agreed that in appearance she was a trim and handsome looking little graft. She is painted white, picked out in gold, schooner rigged, and with a pair of large naddler. The passengers for the trip were taken on board in lannohes, and as the vessel steamed out of the every ship she passed as well as large numbers on shore. The run to Macao was made very successfully, a uniform speed of 121 knots being maintained and a period of close upon two being neither too het nor too cold for such a trip, and with the exception of pany very heartily responded to the various tossts of good luck to the steamer, its owners, and Mr. Smith, itschiof ongineer, who has watched its these good luck to the Dock Company was drunk. coupled with the health of the popular acting Secretary, Mr. Cook. Giving place to the ladies, I must say I was not struck by the excollence of their efforts, and missed the charming productions of a lady resident, which on a previous occasion afforded the strongest evidence of her very decided talent. The new river steamer Honom is a noble boot but she did not appear to advantage on her ar rival here, her long toyage and detention at Aden countraction from the commencement. After having combined to render her dirty and less presentable. When she comes out of dock I would suggest to the directors of the Steamboat Company the desimbility, weather permitting, dar's Wharf, all agreed that the trial had been las a sort of trial trip to let her make an excurmost successful, and that a most enjoyable day sion to Macao and back or somewhere up the Canton River next Sunday, at a moderate fare for the round trip. I believe it would pay well and give a large number of residents the chance of a refreshing blow upon the water.

While it is generally admitted that the flora of Hongkong is extensive and diversified, the fauna is well known to be extremely limited. Quadrupeds are scarce in number and few in variety. I have certainly once been favoured by a glimpse of door-it was but a small specimen-and on the hills above the Mahemedan cemetery I got within stone's throw of a fox. Wild cats are also, I believe, in existence in the more secluded spots, and rats of course are common. The deer, I am told, swim across from the mainland. I well remember a police bost capturing one while swimming in the Ly-comun Pass, and the captive found a safe asylum in the Hon. C. May's grounds at the Den. Foxes are common enough on the mainland, but there are few on this island. Fourfooted game are thus, it will be seen, exceedingly tource. Why should not an attempt be made to introduce the rabbit and the 'hare? Now that more cover is springing up, should think they might, having regard to their amazing feoundity, mausge to hold their ground against their numerous enemies. The experiment at Stone-cutter's Island is now proving very stocessful.

The following is a cutting from a paper twenty Chinese gold-tester.—I have a stone in my posses-sion which came from China: It is called a gold-tester. We who live on the borders of Cathay know well Mr. Eldred Smith's failure to get thy satisfaction out of the test stone must have been attributable to his own obtuseness, and by no means to deception on the part of the noteriously veraclous Chinaman. His experience reminds me it him, complainant showed the knife, and the much of the efficience qualities of a certain prisoner snatched it away, and gave it to a boy stain remover which a friend of mine sometimes loudly declares "will remove inkatains, tarstains, fruit-stains, or any other stains. THE SEAT OF WAR IN EGYPT

The following extracts from Indian papers hrow some light on the aceae of the war:-

The Pioncer Bavs :-The council of war recently held at Alexandria sems to have recognized the strength of the Kafr-ed-Dawar lines, and to have decided that the direction of the attack upon them must be on a broader front than dould possibly be found along the railway and the Mahmoudiyeh Canal. The plan which would of course appear the best from a strategical point of view would be the rapid advance from Tamailia to Zag-a-Zig of a well equipped force, which should take Arabi's position in reverse, while he was being kept in

All that at present is known about this lamentable matter has been related by the followers of the traveller, who made their way to the N.W. coast and reported themselves at Papar, one of the stations of Sabah. It appears from what can be gathered of the reports in question, that the unfortunate Mr. Witti was travelling on the confines of the Sabah territory, and at the time he was killed he was sitting on the banks of the river S. Talanbei, making notes or sketching, and his followers were dragging his boat round some rapids, and could see what passed below where Witti was, who evidently anticipated no danger; indeed the party. of Murate, though a head hunting tribe, had treated him so well by providing food and affording assistance, that asy suspicion of evil would have been disarmed. DEATH OF ADMIRAL M'DOUGAL.

Rear Admiral David Stockton McDougal, the 7th August. He was a native of Chillicathe. Ohle, having been born September 17th, 1809. His sge was 72 years, 10 mouths, 11 days. At these of eighteen he enteredthe Naval Academy Indo-China Steam Navigation Co.'s Sharesat Amapolis on the same day with the late Rear. died in Washington only a law months since. In 1884 he was assigned to duty at the New Hongkong Hotel Company's Shares $107 York Navy Yard and from 1833 to 1839 was on Indisficet. In February, 1841, he was commissioned Lieutenaut and attacked to the brig Cons. He greatly distinguished himself there in bringing to subjection one of the most powerful and influential of the Japanese dainios or princes, the Prince of Nemto. This Prince, in his hatred of foreigners and in violation of the treaty with our Government had closed by force the Strait of Simonasaki, the chief passage to the principal inland sea of the supire. The American back Pembroke had been fired upon and forced to retreat. In this crisis Captain McDougal received instructions to proceed to the mone and redress the insult to our flag. The iggement that followed has added no little luste to our naval exploit. The Japanese Comment afterward paid bree-quarters of a million dollars to the United States as indemnity and of which sum $140,000 went to the Wyoming as prize money, and the Americans resident in Japan presented Commander Mo-Dougal with an elegant vilve service. On his raisen to California in 1864, Captain McDougal or was tendered the command of the Mare Island or Navy Yard. He remained here until 1868, when he wok command of the Foundation, being commissoped as Commodore in 1869. In 1871 he was commissioned as Rear Admiral, and was placed on the patiesd list. For since his retirement from the Navy he had made San Francisco histone although often negelby his associates to acticle Washington, the cityler excellence of the Appy and Navy. He left stryiving him a wife and two daughters, who younger having a short timesince married Mr. Le Brion, the wall-known attomoy.
